

Loyola

HIGH SCHOOL

SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHER

- POSITION: Full-time
- START DATE: August 20, 2019
- REPORTING TO: Principal
- LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL: Loyola is a Jesuit, Catholic school that challenges its young men to become intellectually competent, open to growth, religious, loving and committed to doing justice. A university-preparatory school, Loyola is committed to the development of the whole person through a comprehensive educational experience of academic excellence, spiritual and religious formation, and extra-curricular involvement.
- EDUCATION: Bachelor's degree in Education or Social Science; Master's preferred
Active Québec teaching certificate
- WORK EXPERIENCE: Successful high school history or geography teaching experience
Successful high school coaching experience a strong asset
- LANGUAGE: Loyola High School is an English working environment.
However, written and spoken French and English are required for this position.
- RESPONSIBILITIES: Teach high school social studies classes in French and in English
Complete standard cafeteria, study hall, gym, class coverage, and detention supervisions
Participate in faculty, department, and grade level meetings professional development opportunities
Attend required school events beyond the school day such as Open House, Parent-Teacher Interviews, and Info Nights
Chaperone school events (such as testing, dances, field trips)
Respect and help form the spiritual values of the students and support the Jesuit and Catholic identity of the school by supporting the liturgical and spiritual life of the school
Actively implement the Code of Conduct/disciplinary procedures as outlined in Student Handbook
Contribute to a safe and clean environment by keeping classroom and work spaces clean and tidy, showing care for school property
- OTHER: Must be able to work well both independently and collaboratively
Must demonstrate or be willing to develop a strong commitment to Jesuit education
- SCHEDULE: 8:00 am – 4:30 pm daily / August 20, 2019 – June 20, 2020
- SUBMIT APPLICATIONS TO: Mr. Tom Malone, Principal at malonet@loyola.ca

APPLICATION: Cover letter, CV/resume, university transcripts, three professional references

We thank all candidates for their interest; however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted.